The Moment We Met
by Ian Buckley

Liz and Alan know there's something between them the moment they meet. Is it love? Will it endure and grow? Will they find happiness at last? All the signs say yes. Their affection deepens over time. Alan loves Liz. Liz loves Alan. They go from strength to strength. The future looks inviting and wonderful and happy. Until one day an incident, a silly nothing sort of incident, begins to sow the seeds of doubt...
